THOMAS WULZ SAYS

"There's a saying: "Tell me, I'll forget. Show me, and I'll remember. Involve me; I'll understand". The key to successful cooperation and further development is, on the one hand, communication and, on the other hand, the certainty that all participants can see the big picture.

Openness is an essential prerequisite for dealing with new developments. I intend to invite people to look beyond their horizons - "out of the box" - and discover new possibilities.

I like to spend my free time with family and friends. I travel - especially to Tuscany and Australia - with great joy, enjoy good food and am not opposed to a good pot of white wine from Southern Styria."
